DOWNTOWN HAYWARD IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

On September 16, 2021, AB 361 was adopted on an urgency basis (AB 361, section 9) meaning it has immediate effect. Shortly thereafter, Governor Newsome issued an executive order delaying implementation until October 1. After October 1 and through January 1, 2024 (when the bill sunsets), bodies subject to the Brown Act can continue to meet electronically (without the need to allow the pubic to participate from a physical location) after making specific findings and subject to added requirements.

Findings

A body subject to the Brown Act may continue to meet virtually when:

- 1) it is meeting during a proclaimed state of emergency AND
- 2) either: state or local officials have imposed or recommended measures to promote social distancing OR the body is meeting to determine or has determined by majority vote, whether as a result of the emergency, meeting in person would present imminent risks to the health or safety of attendees.

Thereafter, at least every 30 days the body must make the following findings by majority vote:

- (A) The legislative body has reconsidered the circumstances of the state of emergency.
- (B) Any of the following circumstances exist:
 - (i) The state of emergency continues to directly impact the ability of the members to meet safely in person.
 - (ii) State or local officials continue to impose or recommend measures to promote social distancing

Additional Requirements

In addition to requirements established under the Governor's Executive Orders, public entities that continue to meet virtually must also:

- Allow real-time public comment; may not require public comments to be submitted in advance.
- Allow people to register (get in line) to give public comment during the entire public comment period for a given item.
- Suspend any action in the event of a service interruption. If there is a disruption (within the agency's control) that prevents broadcast of the meeting or prevents the public from providing comments, the body may not take actions until service is restored or those actions may be challenged.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Scope of Services

BACS shall provide the following services as requested by DHIA.

Intent: The Bay Area Community Services (BACS) will provide outreach-oriented activities to invite people experiencing homelessness to engage in services or go to shelter. control. BACS is not authorized to enter into contracts or agreements on behalf of DHIA or to otherwise create obligations of DHIA of any kind to third parties.

- a. Employees furnished by BACS, if any, shall be deemed solely those of BACS and under BACS's exclusive control and BACS shall assume exclusive responsibility for payment of the salaries or wages of said employees, and to satisfy any legal obligations or reports relating to their employment, including but not limited to Social Security, Unemployment Insurance, Workers' Compensation, federal or state tax law withholding requirements, tax obligations and any related reporting requirements.
- b. DHIA shall make no state or federal unemployment compensation payments on behalf of BACS or BACS's employees or contract personnel. BACS will not be entitled to these benefits in connection with work performed under this Agreement.
- c. BACS understands that neither BACS nor BACS's employees or contract personnel are eligible to participate in any employee pension, health, vacation pay, sick pay, or other fringe benefit plan of DHIA.

3. Term and Termination

The term of this Agreement shall be January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023 (the "Term").

- a. Either party may terminate this agreement by providing 30 days advance written notice to the other party.
- b. In the event that BACS materially breaches this agreement, DHIA may terminate this agreement immediately without prior notice.
- c. BACS shall be paid for any services not then in dispute which were properly rendered prior to termination. Termination shall not be cause to give either party hereto a claim for damages for work to be performed beyond the actual date of the termination.

4. Compensation and Payment

- a. DHIA agrees to pay BACS according to BACS's fee schedule of $6,500 monthly, but all such payments to BACS shall not to exceed a total compensation of $78,000 annually over the Term unless authorized by DHIA in writing.
- b. BACS shall be solely responsible for its expenses incurred during the performance of services hereunder, and DHIA shall not be liable for any of BACS's expenses, paid or incurred unless it expressly agrees to reimburse BACS, in whole or in part for a specific expense incurred, in writing.
- c. BACS shall furnish DHIA with a complete and executed IRS Form W-9 upon execution of this Agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, DHIA shall not be required to make any payment to BACS until DHIA has received such form.
- d. DHIA will not: (i) withhold FICA (Social Security and Medicare taxes) from BACS's payments or make FICA payments on BACS's behalf; (ii) make state or federal unemployment compensation

- contributions on BACS's behalf, or (iii) withhold state or federal income tax from BACS's payments.
- e. BACS shall pay all taxes incurred while performing services under this Agreement--including all applicable income taxes and, if BACS is not a corporation, self-employment (Social Security) taxes. Upon demand, BACS shall provide DHIA with proof that such payments have been made.

5. Legal Compliance

- a. BACS agrees to and represents and warrants to DHIA that it will abide by any and all laws, regulations, or other legal requirements applicable to it performing the services described herein to DHIA.

- b. BACS shall, to the maximum extent allowable by law, protect, defend, indemnify, and hold harmless DHIA, New City America, Inc., and the City of Hayward, and each of the foregoing entities' respective officers, directors, employees, agents, volunteers, or representatives (collectively "Indemnitees") from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, suits, fines, penalties, judgments, amounts paid in settlement, losses, liabilities, or costs of any kind, including attorneys' fees and other litigation expenses ("Losses"), arising out of the performance of this agreement, including but not limited to Losses related to(i) any injury or damage to any person or property whatsoever arising out of or in connection with BACS's acts or omissions in its performance of or failure to perform BACS's services or obligations under this Agreement; (ii) any injury or damage to any person or property arising out of BACS's acts relating to the transportation of any person, homeless or otherwise, into, within, or out of the Downtown Hayward District; (iii) any breach of BACS's representations or warranties under this Agreement; (iv) any failure of any waiver or release to fully and completely protect Indemnitees from any and all Losses; or (v) any combination thereof, except only to the extent that it arises from the negligence or willful misconduct of DHIA.
- c. BACS's obligation to protect, defend, and pay for the defense of the Indemnitees is in advance of, in addition to, and separate from the obligation to indemnity the Indemnitees as described in 6.b of this agreement. Notwithstanding BACS's obligation to defend and pay for defense costs, each Indemnitee reserves the right to control its own defense at its option. However, BACS will retain the right to select counsel provided by BACS for the provisions in 6.b of this agreement.
- d. The provisions of this Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement with respect to any claims, liability, or loss arising out of or relating to facts, circumstances, or events occurring prior to such expiration or termination.

7. Insurance

- a. DHIA shall not provide any insurance coverage of any kind for BACS or BACS's employees or contract personnel, including without limitation, workers' compensation insurance.
